

Chandran Kukathas (LSE)

“On Liberty and Diversity” Thursday, Feb. 09, 2012, 6 pm “Fakultätssaal” Philosophikum

Prof. Chandran Kukathas, a Malaysian-born Australian political theorist, has earned international recognition for his contributions to debates on social diversity, multiculturalism and toleration. He currently holds a chair in Political Theory at the London School of Economics and Political Science.

Selected publications

- Expatriatism: the theory and practice of open borders. In: Smith, Roger M. (ed.), Citizenship, borders and human needs. Philadelphia: University of Pennsylvania Press 2010.
- Anarcho-multiculturalism: the pure theory of liberalism. In: Levey, Geoffrey Brahm (ed.), Political theory and Australian multiculturalism. Oxford: Berghahn Books 2008.
- Cultural privacy. The Monist 91: 1 (2008).
- The Liberal Archipelago: A Theory of Diversity and Freedom, Oxford: Oxford University Press 2003.
- Cultural toleration. In: Shapiro, Ian, and Will Kymlicka (eds.), Ethnicity and Group Rights, New York: New York University Press 1997.
- Are there any cultural rights? Political Theory 20:1 (1992).

Biography

Chandran Kukathas holds a BA in History and Political Science from the Australian National University, a MA in Politics from the University of New South Wales, and a DPhil in Politics from Oxford University. Prior to his current position at the LSE, he has taught at the Royal Military College, the ANU and the Australian Defence Force Academy (all in Canberra), as well as at Oxford and the University of Utah.

Website

<http://www2.lse.ac.uk/government/whosWho/profiles/CKukathas@lse.ac.uk/Home.aspx>